

Continuing Care Assistant

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 08 June 2010 22:57 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 June 2010 15:09

Continuing Care Assistant

Continuing Care Assistant provides knowledge and skill development in helping people help themselves in their homes and in special-care facilities.

What do Continuing Care Assistants do on the job?

- Promote independence in a safe environment
- Provide personal care
- Assist with individual psychosocial needs
- Work with individuals with different levels of physical and cognitive impairment
- Work under the supervision of registered nurses, registered psychiatric nurses or licensed practical nurses

Where do Continuing Care Assistants work?

- Hospitals
- Home Care
- Personal Care Homes
- Health Authorities
- Integrated facilities

What characteristics do you need?

- Physically active
- Communication skills
- Interest in helping people

Estimated Average Hourly Wage from Service Canada - Saskatchewan - $16.15/hour

Post-Secondary Institutes

Continuing Care Assistant

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 08 June 2010 22:57 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 June 2010 15:09

- SIAST – Continuing Care Assistant
 - o Certificate Program
 - o Prince Albert, Regina, Saskatoon, Distance Learning
 - o Require: Grade 12
 - o Length: 30 weeks
 - o Require Standard First Aid and CPR HeartSaver 'C'

Career Ambassador Project

Community Vitality Monitoring Partnership Process

306-425-6883