

Doctor

Written by Administrator
Wednesday, 09 June 2010 15:46 -

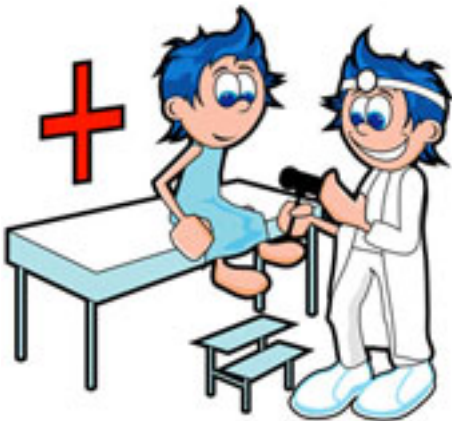

Doctor

Doctors are licensed to diagnose and treat patients' diseases, physiological and psychiatric disorders, injuries and other health-related problems.

What Do Doctors do?

- take medical histories and examine patients
- order, perform and interpret medical tests to diagnose health-related problems
- determine appropriate treatments which may include lifestyle change, surgery, medication, or more complex treatment or rehabilitation programs
- counsel patients on preventative health care and lifestyle including diet and activity
- participate in health care teams and co-ordinate their work with other physicians, nurses, pharmacists and other health care providers
- may specialize in many different areas

Where do Doctors work?

- Hospitals
- Health Clinics
- Doctor Offices
- Community settings
- Nursing Homes

Job Titles

- Cardiologist
- Dermatologist
- Family Physician
- Neurologist
- Obstetrician
- Oncologist

Doctor

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 09 June 2010 15:46 -

- Radiologist
- Surgeon

What characteristics do you need?

- ability to get along with people and instill confidence
- stamina required to work long hours
- emotional strength and maturity
- good communication skills
- enjoy finding solutions to problems

Estimated Average Hourly Wage from Service Canada - Saskatchewan - $87.02/hour

Post-Secondary Institute

- University of Saskatchewan
 - o Degree Program
 - o Require: Grade 12 with a minimum grade of 70% in Mathematics B30, Mathematics C30, Biology 30, Chemistry 30, Physics 30
 - o Length: 8 years

Career Ambassador Project
Community Vitality Monitoring Partnership Process
306-425-6883